NORMAN BRAMAN, Owner

When Norman Braman officially became the new owner of the Philadelphia Eagles in April, 1985, it was a dream come true for the Miami businessman who, as a lanky kid, used to haul water buckets to Steve Van Buren, Tommy Thompson, and the rest of the Eagles' players at their training camp in West Chester and then sneak into Shibe Park during the regular season to watch them play.

"I didn't have the money to buy a ticket then" recalled Braman, who today heads an automobile sales and leasing organization that is among the largest in the world.

Braman, 54, has called his purchase of the Eagles "a solid business deal that's deeply immersed in sentimentality." Indeed, Braman has maintained his love affair with the Birds since his water boy days.

Last July, Braman became the sole owner of the Eagles when he purchased the stock owned by his brother-in-law, Ed Leibowitz, who owned 35 percent of the club. Since purchasing the Eagles, Braman has been active in National Football League matters and currently serves on the board of directors for NFL Properties and is chairman of the Super Bowl site selection committee.

Before moving to Florida in 1968 when he sold his highly successful business in Pennsylvania, Braman religiously bought Eagles' season tickets.

He has come a long way from humble beginnings. His successful future must have seemed like a million-to-one longshot when he was born in West Chester, PA (August 22, 1932), the second son of immigrant parents. His father, Harry, a barber who died several years ago, had come to America from Poland. His mother, Katie, now living in Miami, came from Romania. Braman's brother, Leonard, is a retired judge.

Braman has been a Philadelphian almost from birth. He was less than a year old when his family moved there from West Chester. Braman well remembers those early days in the Roseberry Street and Orkney Street neighborhoods in South Philadelphia.

He went to Taggart Elementary School in South Philadelphia and spent time hanging around his father's barber shop at Eighth and Arch Streets. Later, after the family moved to Larchwood Avenue in West Philadelphia, he attended

Bryant Elementary, Shaw Junior High, and West Philadelphia High, where he played basketball and graduated in 1950.

Braman received a degree in marketing from Temple University in 1955. He first entered the business world as a salesman for a wholesale wine and liquor distributor.

He started on his road to success in Lebanon, PA, where he opened a small discount department store which did so well that he soon was able to open new stores in Philadelphia and other nearby towns.

Later, he organized Philadelphia Pharmaceuticals and Cosmetics. In 1968, at only 36, he was made an offer he couldn't refuse and sold the business at a price that made him a millionaire.

When Braman sold his Philadelphia business, he bought a home in Florida to spend more time enjoying life with his wife and children. In 1972, however, he was presented with an opportunity to take an interest in a Cadillac agency in Tampa, FL. In 1975, he acquired a Miami Cadillac agency. Braman has been going again at full speed ever since.

In the past 10 years, he has become one of South Florida's most visible and successful businessmen and community leaders. His automotive organization includes a string of dealerships across the state of Florida and in Denver, CO. They represent Cadillac, Rolls-Royce, BMW, Audi, Maserati, Porsche, Toyota, Nissan, and Chrysler-Plymouth.

The Braman organization sells more than 25,000 cars a year. Its gross volume for 1986 was in excess of $500 million.

In May, 1985, Braman became chairman of Austin Rover Cars of North America, through which he imports and distributes a new luxury automobile called the STERLING, which is engineered jointly by Austin Rover of England and the Honda Motor Company of Japan. It is the first production car in the world to have been developed on an equally shared basis from concept to production by two major manufacturers.

Braman taps a seemingly inexhaustible supply of energy. While directing his sophisticated and extensive business empire, he manages to devote considerable time to community activities as an activist and philanthropist.

He has been very involved with Philadelphia's Crisis Intervention Network, which has gained nationwide recognition for its remarkable success in controlling the city's once critical gang problem and also for its involvement as an intermediary in neighborhood disputes. Braman served as honorary chairman of the Variety Club telethon and is on the board of directors of the Police Athletic League and the Maxwell Football Club.

Braman also is a leader and contributor to such diverse causes as the United Way, the Greater Miami Jewish Federation, Miami Heart Institute, Mount Sinai Medical Center, United Israel Appeal, Greater Miami Chamber of Commerce, Tel Aviv University, and numerous other efforts, including the National Foundation for the Advancement of the Arts.

In 1985, Braman received the prestigious "Tree of Life" award from the Jewish National Fund of Philadelphia for his distinguished community service. He also was the recipient of the Order of Owl Award from the Temple Alumni Association for his business and philanthropic contributions. He was honored by Drexel University as its Business Leader of the Year.

Braman also has an active interest in politics, dating back to the days of his support of Republican Senator Hugh Scott in his native Pennsylvania. Several years ago, he was considered by many to be a leading potential candidate for the U.S. Senate from Florida. Eventually, however, he took himself out of consideration for that office to concentrate on business. In 1981, President Ronald Reagan nominated him for the Commissioner of the U.S. Immigration and Naturalization Service, but Braman decided he needed to devote full time to his dealerships.

Braman and his wife, Irma, have been married for 31 years. They became grandparents for the first time in 1986 when their daughter, Debra, and her husband, Todd Shack, had a baby boy, Alex Jeremy. They live in Miami. Debra, 27 is a graduate of Boston University and the Fashion Institute of New York. The Braman's other daughter, Suzi, 20, is a junior at Drexel University.

HARRY T. GAMBLE, President-Chief Operating Officer

In July, 1986, at the same time Norman Braman became sole owner of the Eagles, Harry Gamble was named president-chief operating officer of the club.

Gamble has proven to be an extremely capable NFL executive. He is respected by his peers for his business acumen and patience.

"I wish I had a Harry Gamble in all my businesses," said Braman. "I have rarely come across a man who possesses the kind of common sense and leadership qualities that he has. I'm more a shooter from the hip. Harry is the calm, analytical, solid football man. He is going to build a consistent, winning football team in Philadelphia."

Gamble began his meteoric rise through the Eagles' organization in 1981 when he served as a volunteer assistant coach. In 1982, he coached special teams and was an administrative assistant to head coach Dick Vermeil. Gamble then concentrated his efforts in administration in 1983 as an assistant for both the coaching and personnel staffs before being named director of football operations in 1984.

In February, 1985, shortly before Braman reached an agreement with Leonard Tose to purchase the Eagles, Gamble was named general manager. On April 29, the same day Braman officially became the Eagles' owner, he expanded Gamble's title to vice president-general manager in charge of all daily operations of the club.

Prior to joining the Eagles, Gamble was head football coach at Lafayette (1967-1970) and Pennsylvania (1971-1980). In 1972, he was chosen by his peers as the NCAA District One coach of the year and by the New York Sportswriters Association as the University Division Eastern coach of the year when Penn posted a 6-3 record. During several months in 1979, he served as the university's acting director of recreation and collegiate athletics.

Born and raised in Pitman, NJ, Gamble, 56 (12/26/30), has master's and doctorate degrees in business administration and education from Temple University. He received his undergraduate degree in 1952 from Rider College, where he was an offensive lineman, and then became a player-coach with an Army team at Fort Meade (MD) in 1953. After coaching and teaching in the New Jersey prep ranks from 1954-1961 (at Clayton and Audubon high schools), Gamble became an assistant coach at Penn from 1962-66.

Throughout his career in football, the likeable Gamble has received much recognition. In 1985, he was inducted into the Gloucester County (NJ) Sports Hall of Fame and the South Jersey Coaches Hall of Fame. He also received the Bert Bell Award from the Bakers Club of Philadelphia. In 1987, Gamble received an honorary Doctor of Laws degree from Rider College.

Gamble is a member of the board of directors of the Maxwell Football Club and is involved with community groups such as the Police Athletic League and Special Olympics. He and his wife Joan reside in Haddonfield, NJ. They have two sons, Harry 28 and Tom 24.

MIMI BOX

Vice President-Chief Financial Officer

Mimi Box, who joined the Eagles' staff in 1983 as business manager, was promoted to vice president-chief financial officer in July, 1986. Prior to joining the Eagles, Box, 36, worked for the Internal Revenue Service for 11 years. From 1972-79, she was a special agent in the criminal investigation division of the IRS. During the next three years, she served in two managerial roles. Box was born in Philadelphia (12/21/50) and attended the Academy of Notre Dame de Namur in Villanova before enrolling at Drexel University, where she earned a degree in business administration in 1972. Box and her husband, Bob, reside in West Chester, PA, with their children Lauren 6 and Daniel 3.

DECKER UHLHORN

Vice President-Marketing and Development

Decker Uhlhorn, spent 12 years as an administrator at the University of Pennsylvania before joining the Eagles in November, 1985, as the club's executive director of sales and marketing. One year later, he was promoted to his present position of vice president-marketing and development. In this capacity, Uhlhorn, 39, oversees the Eagles' revenue generating matters. Born in Brooklyn, NY (9/4/47), and raised in Valley Stream, NY, he graduated from Valley Stream Central High. Uhlhorn went on to earn a degree in history at Penn, where he played varsity basketball from 1966-69. He also earned a master's degree in education from Rutgers in 1973. From 1969-1973, Uhlhorn was a history teacher and assistant basketball coach at Woodrow Wilson High in Camden, NJ, where he served under Gary Williams, now the head coach at Ohio State. Uhlhorn returned to Penn in September, 1973, and worked in the undergraduate admissions department until 1979. Over the next six years, he was the University's director of commonwealth relations (1979-1983) and the associate director of development (1983-85). Uhlhorn and his wife Madeleine reside in Wilmington, DE. They have three children, daughters Elizabeth 7 and Madeleine 5, and son Bradford 3.

GEORGE AZAR, Assistant to the President

George Azar begins his third year as an assistant to the president. In this role, Azar assists Harry Gamble in numerous club matters, and acts as an administrative liaison with the NFL office. Azar, 46 (7/26/41), also is responsible for evaluating film of collegiate players throughout the East, a task he performed on a voluntary basis for two years prior to joining the Eagles. During that time, Azar recommended current Birds' linebacker Mike Reichenbach (East Stroudsburg) and defensive back Andre Waters (Cheyney). Azar also worked as a volunteer administrative assistant at the Eagles' 1983 and 1984 training camps. This marks the third time Gamble and Azar have worked together. Azar spent six years (1965-1970) at Lafayette as an assistant football coach, the last four with Gamble, who was head coach. Azar was the offensive line coach under Gamble at the University of Pennsylvania from 1971-80. He then served as the head wrestling coach and an assistant football coach at Woodbury (NJ) High School before joining the Eagles in 1985. Azar was born and raised in Johnstown, PA, where he was an all-state football player, state wrestling champion, and baseball letterman. He earned a BS degree in physical education from Michigan State, where he was a standout guard and linebacker (1960-62) and a catcher in baseball (1961-63). Azar and his wife Kay reside in Cherry Hill, NJ. They have 22-year old twins, son Todd, who was an All-America baseball player at Old Dominion, and daughter Robyn . . . pronounced A-zar.

PATRICK FORTE, Assistant to the President

Patrick Forte, who represented nearly 35 athletes as an agent from 1980-85, joined the Eagles in January, 1986, as an assistant to the president. In this capacity, he assists in contract negotiations with Eagles' players. Forte, 37 (3/17/50), represented Eagles' defensive lineman Reggie White, who signed with the Eagles in 1985 after two seasons with the Memphis Showboats of the USFL. He also was the agent for such NFL standouts as Billy Sims, Curtis Dickey, George Cumby, and Keith Gary. Prior to becoming an agent, Forte worked in public relations for General Motors and Honeywell. Born and raised in Flint, MI, Forte participated in football and track at Flint Northwestern High School before attending Lincoln University in Jefferson City, MO. Forte and his wife Christine reside in Villanova, PA, with their daughters Brandi 6 and Jade 4 . . . pronounced: for-TAY.

BUDDY RYAN

Head Coach

Architect. Nonconformist. Innovator. Taskmaster. Teacher. They all describe James David (Buddy) Ryan, who made sweeping changes last season in his first year as head coach of the Philadelphia Eagles. With 20 new players on the 45-man roster, the Birds finished 5-10-1 against the toughest schedule in the NFL in 1986.

"I think the players believe in what we're doing," says Ryan, 53, who is beginning his 20th year as an NFL coach. "They know we're going to get there and that it's just a matter of maturing together. Last year we put together the nucleus to build on. We went through growing pains. When you start seven or eight rookies, that's going to happen. You usually find a way to lose rather than win. But as they mature, we're going to have a great football team in Philadelphia that all our fans will be proud of."

Ryan made some difficult personnel decisions that weren't always popular. As a result, the Eagles' young players had the opportunity to play more than most other pros do at similar stages in their careers. One of them is third-year quarterback Randall Cunningham, who has taken over the starting position.

"Buddy is a hardcore coach, but that's what we need in Philadelphia," Cunningham said. "You make a mistake, and he's going to tell you about it. That kind of pressure, though, makes people work harder. I think it brings out the best in everyone. It brings out the man in you."

It takes time to adjust to Ryan's approach just as it does to learn his complex 46 Defense. Chicago Bears' all-pro middle linebacker Mike Singletary is a case in point. As a rookie, he had difficulty learning Ryan's system and did not start until the middle of the season. After several years working with Ryan, he commented: "When you go to war with a man for a long time, you develop a special affection for him. We [the Chicago Bears] have that kind of affection for Buddy Ryan."

A common thread throughout Ryan's life has been success, from the time he earned the rank of master sergeant at age 18 with the Army in Korea to the seasons he served on the coaching staffs of three Super Bowl teams (year indicates season): Bears (1985), Vikings (1976), and Jets (1968). He is a highly respected tactician who devised the 46 Defense with its multiple variations of alignments and coverages.

In their Super Bowl victory, the Bears held the Patriots to the fewest rushing yards (7) and fewest first downs rushing (1) in Super Bowl history. New England managed just 123 yards in total offense, the second lowest total ever in a Super Bowl. Chicago's defensive performance in Super Bowl XX followed two consecutive shutouts in playoff games against the Rams and the Giants, the first time a team had accomplished that feat in NFL history.

During the regular season, the Bears led the NFL in nine defensive categories: points allowed (12.4 per game), rushing yards allowed (82.4), rushing TD's allowed (6), interceptions (34), total yards allowed (258.4), turnovers (54), first downs allowed (14.8), opponent passing percentage (47.7), and opponent time of possession (25:27). The Bears' defense held seven opponents without a TD en route to an 18-1 record (includes a 26-10 victory over San Francisco when 49ers scored on an interception).

In Ryan's eight seasons as defensive coordinator with Chicago, his defenses ranked among the NFL's top 10 six times. The Bears set an NFL record with 72 quarterback sacks in 1984 when they led the league in fewest yards allowed (241.3 per game) and fewest rushing yards surrendered (86.1).

Ryan served as defensive line coach under Bud Grant with the Minnesota Vikings in 1976 and 1977 before joining the Bears. From 1968-1975, he was on the defensive staff of the New York Jets under Pro Football Hall of Fame coach Weeb Ewbank, whom he credits with influencing his defensive philosophy the most.

"Weeb said he'd do anything to protect the quarterback, even if it meant keeping nine men in to help," Ryan said. "That's when I figured if it was that important to Weeb to protect the quarterback, then it ought to mean just as much to the defense to get him, even if it meant sending in nine men."

"The other thing Weeb said was tough for him was going against mixed coverages. Now Weeb was about a hundred years ahead of his time in offensive philosophy. I thought, hell, if it's tough on Weeb, then if I ever get the chance to head up a defense, that's what I'll use."

Thus evolved the 46 Defense, a 5-1-5 set named after its first middleman, former safety Doug Plank, who wore number 46. The scheme forces offensive linemen into one-on-one blocking and opens up the avenues for blitzing.

Ryan was born February 17, 1934, in Frederick, Oklahoma. Following graduation from Frederick High, he entered the Army at age 16, served in Korea for two years, and was discharged with the rank of master sergeant. While in the service, Ryan played on the fourth Army championship team in Japan.

A four-year letterman at Oklahoma State from 1952-55, Ryan received a B.A. in education in 1957 and later earned a master's degree in education at Middle Tennessee in 1966. He began his coaching career at Gainesville (TX) High School as athletic director and head coach from 1957-59 and was an assistant at Marshall (TX) High in 1960.

Ryan joined the college coaching ranks as defensive coordinator at the University of Buffalo from 1961-65. He served in a similar role the next two years at Vanderbilt (1966) and the University of Pacific (1967) before joining the Jets.

Ryan and his wife Joan have three children: Jimmy, Jr., 28, who works for Leo Burnett Advertising Agency in Chicago, and twins, Rex and Robert, 23, who graduated from Southwestern Oklahoma State in May and are graduate assistants on the football staffs at Eastern and Western Kentucky universities respectively. Ryan is an outdoor enthusiast and owner of a horse farm in Lawrenceburg, Kentucky, where he spends much of his spare time.

Since coming to Philadelphia, Ryan has done a public service announcement for the Variety Club, helped at the Easter Seal Telethon, and participated in events benefitting Eagles Fly for Leukemia. He also is on the board of governors of the Maxwell Football Club.

1987 STAFF

DAVE ATKINS, Offensive Backfield

Dave Atkins served as running backs coach at San Diego State from 1981-85 before joining the Eagles a year ago. In Atkins' first year as a pro coach, the Birds' running game improved from 23rd in the NFL in 1985 to ninth and produced its highest rushing total (2,002 yards) since 1981. While at SDSU, Atkins served under head coach Doug Scovil, who is now the Birds' quarterbacks coach. Atkins, 38, was born in Victoria, TX (5/18/49), where he attended Victoria High School. As a running back at Texas El-Paso from 1970-72, he served as tri-captain in his senior year when he rushed for 350 yards (4.9-yard avg.). In 1973, Atkins was drafted in the eighth round by San Francisco and was on the 49ers' active roster that season. The following year he signed with Honolulu of the now-defunct World Football League, and then completed his pro career with the San Diego Chargers in 1975. Atkins entered the coaching ranks as an assistant at Burges High School in El Paso (1977-78). In 1979, he returned to his alma mater, Texas-El Paso, where he coached the offensive backfield and kicking game for two seasons before joining the San Diego State staff. Atkins and his wife Elizabeth have a 10-year-old son, David. They reside in Marlton, NJ.

JEFF FISHER, Defensive Backs

Jeff Fisher, 29, who was a defensive back and punt returner for the Chicago Bears from 1981-85, begins his second season as the Eagles' defensive backfield coach. In 1986, the rookie coach was instrumental in the development of strong safety Andre Waters, who shared the team lead in tackles and interceptions in his first season as a starter. The Bears' seventh round draft choice in 1981, Fisher set a club record for most career punt returns (123). He averaged 9.2 yards per return (1,137 yards) during his career, including an 88-yard runback for a touchdown in 1981 against Tampa Bay (the longest ever by a Bear in Soldier Field). He also set a season record with 58 returns (8.5-yard avg.) in 1984. During his career, Fisher played in 49 games, intercepted five passes, and averaged 15.2 yards on 13 kickoff returns. Fisher spent 1985 on the Bears' injured reserve list (ankle) but gained valuable experience by assisting Buddy Ryan and the rest of Chicago's defensive coaches en route to the Bears' Super Bowl victory over New England. Ironically, Fisher also was injured (broken leg) while playing against the Eagles in Veterans Stadium in 1983. (Eagles' special teams coach Dan Neal suffered a career-ending back injury in that same game.) Born in Culver City, CA (2/25/58), Fisher was an All-America selection in football at Woodland Hills High School before enrolling at the University of Southern California. As a senior at USC, he made the PAC-10 all-academic team. During the three offseasons following the 1983-85 NFL campaigns, Fisher developed a promising career as a computer software salesman. He and his wife Julie had their first child in June, a son Brandon. They reside in Voorhees, N.J.

DALE HAUPT, Defensive Line

Eagles' defensive line coach Dale Haupt, 58, is regarded by Buddy Ryan as the top man at his position in the NFL today. During Ryan's eight years (1978-1985) as defensive coordinator for the Chicago Bears, Haupt served as the defensive line coach and helped mold one of the toughest defenses in NFL history. The culmination of Ryan's and Haupt's work was the 1985 season when Chicago led the NFL in nine defensive categories and earned a 46-10 victory over New England in Super Bowl XX. During those eight seasons, the Bears' defense ranked among the NFL's top 10 six times. Haupt's linemen recorded 50.5 of the Bears' NFL-record 72 quarterback sacks in 1984 (Chicago averaged nearly 48 sacks per year during his tenure). Haupt was instrumental in the development of Pro Bowl players Richard Dent and Dan Hampton. In 1986, his first season with the Eagles, Haupt played a major role in the progress of DE-DT Reggie White, who went on to be named MVP of the Pro Bowl. White's 18 quarterback sacks last season ranked 3rd in the NFL and were a team record. Born in Manitowoc, WI (4/12/29), Haupt was a defensive lineman and linebacker at Wyoming (1950-53). He spent the 1954 preseason with the Green Bay Packers before returning to Wyoming to finish his degree in 1955. He formally began his college coaching career at Tennessee (1960-63, head freshman coach) before moving to Iowa State (1964-65), Richmond (1966-1971), N.C. State (1972-76), and Duke (1977). Haupt and his wife Frances reside in Cherry Hill, NJ. They have a son Mac 29 and daughter Helen 20 . . . pronounced: HOWPT.

RONNIE JONES, Strength and Conditioning Coordinator

"We're very lucky to have a strength coach with Ronnie Jones's qualifications," said head coach Buddy Ryan. "John Cooper, the head coach at Arizona State, said Ronnie played as big a role as anyone in getting the team ready for the Rose Bowl last season." In his first season on the professional level, Jones will handle the Eagles' strength and conditioning program and also will aid the coaching staff in other areas on the field. Jones, 31 (10/17/55), spent the past two years at Arizona State. Prior to joining the Sun Devils' staff, he was the offensive line coach and recruiting coordinator at the University of Tulsa in 1984. From 1979-1983, Jones served as an assistant coach at Northeastern State in Tahlequah, OK, where he worked with the defensive line and linebackers and was also the head track coach and strength coach for all sports. During the 1982-83 school year, he was named the N.A.I.A. district strength coach of the year. Born in Dumas, TX, and raised in Sunray, TX, Jones was a small college All-America as a running back at Northwestern State in Alva, OK (1974-77). After graduating in 1978, he had tryouts with the NFL's Denver Broncos and the Saskatchewan Roughriders of the Canadian Football League. He earned a master's degree in health and physical education from Northeastern State in 1980. He and his wife Karla reside in Evesham, NJ.

DAN NEAL, Special Teams and Offensive Line

Dan Neal, an 11-year NFL veteran as a center with the Baltimore Colts and Chicago Bears, entered the coaching ranks for the first time in 1986 as the Eagles' special teams coach. In 1987, he will expand his duties to assist new offensive line coach Bill Walsh. Neal, 38, joined the Bears in 1975 as a free agent after two seasons as a special teamer with the Colts (11th round draft pick in 1973). He played in 115 consecutive games for Chicago, including 81 straight starts, before suffering a career-ending back injury against the Eagles at Veterans Stadium in 1983. (Ironically, Eagles' defensive backs coach Jeff Fisher sustained a broken leg in the same game with the Bears.) Neal was born in Corbin, KY (8/30/49). After a stellar high school career at Louisville Atherton High, Neal went to the University of Kentucky. He was offensive captain for the Wildcats in 1971 and 1972 and played in the East-West Shrine game as a senior. He and his wife Barbara reside in Cherry Hill, NJ, with their two daughters, Kelly 6 and Tiffany 4.

WADE PHILLIPS, Defensive Coordinator/Linebackers

The Eagles' defensive coordinator and linebackers coach, Wade Phillips joined the club prior to the 1986 season and played an important role in helping head coach Buddy Ryan formulate the defensive game plans. He was also instrumental in the development of linebackers Seth Joyner and Alonso Johnson, who were both starters at times as rookies last season. The 40-year-old son of Bum Phillips (former Oilers' and Saints' head coach) served as the defensive coordinator at New Orleans from 1981-85 and replaced his father as interim head coach for the final four games of the 1985 season (1-3). During his tenure at New Orleans, the Saints led the NFC in defense in 1983 and the NFL in pass defense in 1983-84. Overall, the Saints finished among the top five in the NFL defensively in three of his five seasons. Prior to joining the Saints, Wade spent five seasons with the Oilers, coaching the linebackers (1976) and defensive line (1977-1980). The Oilers made three playoff appearances in that period when Phillips coached all-pros Curley Culp and Elvin Bethea. Phillips began his coaching career at his alma mater, Houston, in 1969 and then coached at Orange (TX) HS for three years before moving to Oklahoma State (1973-74) and Kansas (1975). He was born in Orange, TX (6/21/47), and attended Portes Neches-Groves High School. He went on to be a three-year starter at linebacker at Houston under head coach Bill Yeoman. Phillips and his wife Laurie reside in Mt. Laurel, NJ, with their two children, Tracey 13 and Wesley 8.

TED PLUMB, Assistant Head Coach/ Offense

With the addition of Ted Plumb to the Eagles' staff prior to the 1986 season, Buddy Ryan obtained one of the most highly respected coaches in the game for his knowledge and also for his enthusiasm with his players. He was awarded a game ball following the Eagles' victory at Dallas on 12/14/86. The Eagles' assistant head coach in charge of the offense, Plumb, 48, spent 1980-85 as receivers coach for the Chicago Bears. He has been an NFL coach since 1974, when he joined the New York Giants as offensive backfield coach. After three seasons, he moved to Leeman Bennett's staff in Atlanta as coach of the quarterbacks and wide receivers and remained with the Falcons through 1979. Born in Reno, NV (8/20/39), and raised in northern California, Plumb was a wide receiver at Baylor (1960-61) and played for the Buffalo Bills in 1962. He began his coaching career in the Texas high school system (Raymondville HS, 1963-64; Lubbock HS, 1965) and at Cerritos (CA) JC (1966-67) before joining the Texas Christian University staff in 1968 as wide receivers/tight ends coach. After three seasons at TCU, he assumed the same role at Tulsa (1971) and Kansas (1972-73). Plumb and his wife Marianna reside in Cherry Hill, NJ. They have three children, sons Loyal 25 and John 24, and daughter Molly 18.

DOUG SCOVIL, Quarterbacks

According to head coach Buddy Ryan, "A lot of people watch quarterbacks, but very few can coach them. There's only two guys I ever knew that coach quarterbacks — Weeb Ewbank [former Colts' and Jets' head coach] and Doug Scovil. Doug's just got a gift. You look at the list of quarterbacks he's developed [Jim McMahon, Roger Staubach, John Brodie, Marc Wilson, and Bob Lee]. . . it looks like the Hall of Fame. . . ." In 1986, his first season with the Eagles, Scovil played a key role in the development of then-second-year quarterback Randall Cunningham, changing his delivery and overseeing his progression from a 3rd-down specialist in the first half of 1986 to a starter in 5 of the final 6 games following an injury to Ron Jaworski.

Scovil, 60, served as head coach from 1981-85 at San Diego State, where he compiled an overall record of 24-32-3. In four of the previous five years, Scovil was a top assistant at Brigham Young (1976-77, 1979-1980). In 1978, Scovil and Ryan were assistants with the Chicago Bears under Neill Armstrong. BYU compiled a 40-7 record with four Western Athletic Conference titles during Scovil's tenure there. The Cougars led the nation in passing in each of Scovil's four seasons, and his 1979 team broke 13 NCAA offensive records. The following season, BYU led the country in passing, scoring, and total offense while Jim McMahon became the first collegian at the 1-A level to pass for more than 4,000 yards in a season. A native of Anacortes, WA (7/1/27), Scovil played quarterback for Stockton (CA) Junior College and the College of the Pacific before beginning his coaching career in 1954. After four seasons at Sacred Heart HS (San Francisco, CA, 1954-57) and five at San Mateo (CA) JC (1958-1962), he became an assistant at Navy from 1963-65, during which time Staubach won the Heisman Trophy. Scovil then compiled a 21-19 record as head coach of the University of the Pacific from 1966-69. (Ryan was defensive coordinator under Scovil in 1967.) From 1970-75, Scovil served on Dick Nolan's staff at San Francisco. During that span, the 49ers won three division titles and Brodie was named NFL player of the year in 1970 when he led the league in passing. Scovil and his wife Enid reside in Voorhees, N.J. They have three children, Doug, Jr., 30, Randy 26, and Sara 19.

BILL WALSH, Offensive Line

Bill Walsh, who has been an offensive line coach on the professional level for the past 27 years, begins his first season overseeing the Eagles' offensive line. Prior to joining the Birds' staff, he served in the same capacity with the Houston Oilers from 1983-85. Walsh, 60 (9/8/27), entered the pro coaching ranks in 1960 with the Dallas Texans (became the Kansas City Chiefs in 1963) and spent the next 15 seasons with that organization. During his tenure as an assistant to Hank Stram, the Texans won the AFL Championship in 1962 and the Chiefs played in Super Bowl I and defeated Minnesota in Super Bowl IV. In 1975, Walsh moved to the Atlanta Falcons under former Eagles' head coach Marion Campbell and was the only assistant retained when Leeman Bennett took over as head coach in 1977. During Walsh's eight years in Atlanta, the Falcons made the playoffs three times. Walsh was born in Phillipsburg NJ, and attended Phillipsburg High. He went on to earn All-America honors as a center at Notre Dame before graduating in 1949. He then played with the Pittsburgh Steelers from 1949-1954. During that time, Walsh was named all-pro in 1952 and 1954 and was chosen to play in the first two Pro Bowls (1951 and 1952) in its revival after a nine-year absence of playing the game. Walsh returned to his alma mater as a coach in 1955 and remained at South Bend for four years before moving to Kansas State for the 1959 season. He and his wife Shirley reside in Marlton, N.J. They have six children: Sharon 38, Pat 36, Cheryl 31, Michael 30, Kelly 27, and Christine 23.

JOE WOOLLEY, Director of Player Personnel

Joe Woolley, who became a member of the Eagles' organization in May, 1986, begins his second year as the Birds' director of player personnel. Throughout his career, he has been a highly respected judge of talent. Prior to joining the Eagles, Woolley, 50 (8/14/37), spent five years with the New Orleans Saints, first as a scout (1981-83) and then as director of scouting (1984-85). While directing the Saints' scouting operations, Woolley was responsible for establishing an extensive film library which became a model for the rest of the NFL. Woolley first entered the NFL ranks as an assistant coach in charge of quality control for the Houston Oilers from 1973-75. In that role, he was extensively involved in evaluating pro personnel. After a two-year stint in private business (pipe manufacturing), he rejoined the Oilers as director of scouting from 1978-1980. A graduate of Strong High School in his hometown and birthplace of Strong, AK, he went to Oklahoma State, where he played offensive and defensive tackle (1960-61) and received a degree in education. He was a successful head coach at Texarkana (AK) High School (1962-65) and Galveston (TX) Ball High (1966-72), leading both teams to state playoff berths. Woolley, a resident of Voorhees, NJ, has a son Scott 24.

BILL BAKER, Talent Scout

Bill Baker, who served as the Eagles' Western region scout from 1975-1981, rejoined the Birds' scouting staff in May, 1984, in that same capacity. Baker left the Eagles in September, 1982, to become the director of player personnel for the Arizona Wranglers. In July, 1983, he returned to the NFL as a talent scout with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers. Baker, 59 (11/26/27), is a native of Knoxville, TN. He played college football at Tennessee (1947-49) and at Wyoming (1950-51) as a center and linebacker. Baker began coaching in 1952 at Newcastle High School in Wyoming and compiled a 24-2-1 record there through 1954. From 1955-1961 he was head coach at Chadron (NE) State College, where he registered a 30-26-1 record. His undefeated (8-0) team of 1958 earned Baker coach of the year honors in the Nebraska Conference. Baker then moved to Wyoming, where he was the offensive line and kicking coach from 1962-1970. He performed the same duties at Arizona from 1971-72. Baker and his wife Marjorie reside in Tucson, AZ. They have a married daughter, Vicki, and two sons, Bill, Jr., 33, and Mike 31.

LOU BLUMLING, Talent Scout

Lou Blumling joined the Eagles in June, 1984, after spending the previous 14 years with the BLESTO scouting combine. With the Eagles, Blumling is responsible for the Midwest region of the United States. Blumling worked for BLESTO as an area scout for six years before becoming a regional (East) scout in 1976. Blumling, 58 (1/26/29), was born in Wheeling, WV, and graduated from Magnolia High School in New Martinsville, WV. He then went on to West Liberty State, where he was a halfback and defensive back from 1948-1951 and lettered in basketball, baseball, and golf. Blumling was a prep assistant from 1952-53 before serving as a head coach at Pine Grove High (WV) from 1953-54, St. John's High (Bellaire, OH) for the next six years, and Powhatan High (OH) from 1961-62. He then joined former Miami Dolphins assistant Tom Keane's staff with the Wheeling Ironmen of the United Football League (eventually known as the Continental Football League) in 1963 as offensive backfield coach for three years and defensive coordinator from 1966-67. From 1968-69, Blumling was head coach of the Ironmen. He compiled a 16-8 record during that time, including a 10-2 mark in 1968 that earned him coach of the year honors. Following the collapse of the Continental Football League, Blumling joined BLESTO in 1970. Blumling and his wife JoAnn reside in Lafayette, IN. They have four sons, Jim 30 (a doctor), Bob 26, Tom 19, Jay 18; and a daughter, Kim 28.

KING HILL, Talent Scout

King Hill, who has 29 years of experience in the National Football League as a player, scout, and coach, joined the Eagles' scouting staff in May. In his new role, Hill will cover several states in the Southeast and report to BLESTO, the scouting combine to which the Eagles belong. He also will help the Eagles during training camp and in preparation for the college draft. The 50-year-old Hill is no stranger to Philadelphia. Not only did he do some part-time scouting for the club last year, but he was a quarterback and punter for the Birds from 1961-68. He threw the second longest touchdown pass in the club history, a 92-yard strike to Ben Hawkins against the New York Giants in 1968. He was traded to Minnesota following the third game that season. Hill was the first player selected in the entire 1958 NFL draft (by the Chicago Cardinals), and he quarterbacked the College All-Stars to a rare victory over the pros (Detroit Lions). During his 12-year career, Hill played for the Chicago Cardinals (1958-59), Philadelphia (1961-68), Minnesota (1968), and St. Louis (1960, 1969). Hill served as a vice president of the Players Association in 1969 and was a team representative for 11 years. Hill joined the Houston Oilers as a scout in 1970 before becoming the club's quarterbacks coach midway through the 1971 season. He remained with the Oilers through 1980 as quarterbacks coach (1971-74), offensive coordinator (1975-76), and receivers coach (1977-1980). In 1981, he moved with Bum Phillips to New Orleans, where he was offensive coordinator through the 1985 season. Born in Hamilton, TX, on November 8, 1936, Hill was an all-state football and basketball player at Brazosport (TX) High before becoming a standout quarterback and defensive back at Rice University from 1954-57. A member of the Rice Hall of Fame, he also was a three-year starter for Rice's basketball team and the Owls' 2nd-seeded golfer. He and his wife Sharon reside in West Columbia, TX. They have a son Cody, 18, who is a sophomore at Louisiana Tech University.

OTHO DAVIS, Head Athletic Trainer

Otho Davis, a certified and licensed athletic trainer, is one of the most highly respected trainers in the country. He is in his 15th year as head trainer for the Eagles. Davis is currently the executive director of the National Athletic Trainers Association and formerly served as president of the Pennsylvania Athletic Trainers Society. He is a member of the board of directors of the American Fitness and Running Association and a consultant to the Philadelphia Eagles/Physical Therapy Sports Medicine Centers. A native of Elgin, TX, Davis, 53 (2/8/34), attended South Park High in Beaumont and later earned a B.S. degree in physical education from Lamar University in 1957 and an M.A. degree in 1964 from Kent State, where he was head trainer from 1957-1965. Davis became head trainer and assistant professor of physical education at Duke in 1965 and remained there until 1971 when he entered the NFL as associate trainer of the Baltimore Colts. He joined the Eagles in 1973 as head trainer. Davis supervises a training facility and program that rank among the best in professional sports. In particular, he oversees the Eagles' use of the Ariel and Bidex Computerized Exercise Machines, state-of-the-art systems which aid in training and rehabilitation practices. Davis' skills have been recognized by the National Athletic Trainers Association, which named him "Professional Trainer of the Year" in 1977, 1978, 1980, and 1981, and the Citizens Savings Athletic Foundation, which inducted him into the Athletic Trainers Hall of Fame in 1981. In 1982, he received the Distinguished Service Award for Sports Medicine from the American Orthopedics Society for Sports Medicine. Davis resides in Mt. Laurel, NJ, and is the father of four sons: Mark 30, Harry Roy 24, Richard 22, and Tom 19.

Davis also is very active in the education of young trainers and has established a unique program to give outstanding prospects the opportunity to work on the professional level. He will be assisted this year by Jeff Bray, a 22-year old graduate of Kansas State University and a native of Sterling, KS.

DAVID PRICE, Assistant Trainer

David Price, a product of Otho Davis' intern program, is beginning his second year as the Eagles' assistant trainer. He helps treat injuries, institute preventative therapy, and oversee players' rehabilitation. From 1983-85, Price, 28 (1/28/59), served as head trainer for the Philadelphia/Baltimore Stars of the USFL. A native of Quakertown, PA., Price received his B.S. degree in health and physical education from Lock Haven (PA) University, where he played linebacker for three years during the fall and was a student trainer for the winter and spring sports programs. Price was an intern under Davis during the 1981 training camp and spent the 1982 season with the Eagles as a special assistant. He is single and resides in Voorhees, NJ.

VINCENT J. DISTEFANO, M.D., Team Physician

Dr. Vincent J. DiStefano has served as the Eagles' team physician for the past 16 seasons. A native of South Philadelphia, he received his undergraduate education at Temple University (A.B. degree in 1959) and his medical training at the Hahnemann College Medical School (M.D. degree in 1963). DiStefano, 49 (8/30/38), served as a physician in the U.S. Navy from 1964 to 1966 and currently specializes in orthopedics at the Paoli (PA) Memorial Hospital along with the Eagles' orthopedic consultant, Dr. Herman Phillips. DiStefano is also associated with the Paoli Sports Medicine Clinic (as is Dr. Phillips) and is a member of the American College of Sports Medicine and The American Orthopaedic Society of Sports Medicine. DiStefano and his wife Francis have eight children. They reside in Malvern, PA.

RUSTY SWEENEY, Equipment Manager

Rusty Sweeney has overseen the equipment operation of the Eagles since 1970. A native of Brazosport, TX, Sweeney, 40 (5/10/47), was raised in Lake Jackson, TX, and learned his trade as a student equipment manager at Lamar University in Beaumont, TX, where he majored in physical education and history. Sweeney and his wife Connie reside in Ridley Park, PA, with their daughter Kelly 10, and son Rushford Lee IV 7. Sweeney's assistant in the equipment department is Dan Murray, 20 (6/27/67), a native of Philadelphia and a 1985 graduate of Roman Catholic High School. He resides in Philadelphia.

KEITH BYARS, RB

Ohio State 6-1 230 Born: 10/14/63
Draft 1, 1986 Year Eagle: 2 Year NFL: 2

ENTERING 1987 SEASON: Broke 5th metatarsal bone of left foot on 5/2/87 during passing drill at Eagles' minicamp . . . injury was identical to one suffered on right foot as a college senior in 1985 . . . on 5/5/87 Dr. Jack Hughston of the Hughston Sports Medicine Hospital in Columbus, GA, performed same type of surgery that he had done on right foot a year earlier . . . piece of bone from hip was grafted to fracture site . . . following the latest surgery, Eagles' trainer Otho Davis said, "We absolutely, positively won't rush Keith. There won't be any timetable [for his return to action]. Keith won't play football until he's ready to play football. His progress will determine when he will return, and nothing else."

1986 SEASON: The Eagles' first round draft choice in 1986 (10th player chosen overall), he led the team with 577 rushing yards, more than any rookie in club history, despite starting only 8 games . . . had missed most of training camp due to broken right foot that had sidelined him for most of his senior season at Ohio State and eventually required bone graft surgery in January, 1986 (piece of bone from hip was grafted to 5th metatarsal of foot) . . . by season's end, however, was firmly established in starting backfield . . . it was then that he showed signs of his brilliant Ohio State form, a devastating combination of speed and power . . . in Week 14 vs. St. Louis, was Birds' game-MVP when he rushed for 127 yards, the most by an Eagle last year, and 2nd most ever by an Eagles' rookie (Steve Van Buren had 129 vs. Brooklyn in 1944) . . . prior to that game, Buddy Ryan had a special film-review session with Byars in which they looked at highlights of the Illinois game from his junior season when he scored 5 TDs and rushed for 274 yards . . . had previously started in weeks 2-6 . . . gave solid effort vs. Rams in Week 4, when he led all rushers with 78 yards and threw a 55-yard TD pass to Mike Quick on a halfback option . . . scored only TD on 2-yard plunge vs. San Diego (10/26) . . . finished season with 11 receptions (44 yards) . . . had rehabilitated foot all spring in Eagles' Aqua Ark, a 6-foot 8-inch water tank where he was strapped to the side by buoyant ropes and could run without touching bottom . . . this avoided putting stress on foot and allowed him to maintain cardiovascular fitness . . . was limited to running and rehab until final two days of preseason.

COLLEGE: Second leading rusher in Ohio State history behind two-time Heisman Trophy winner Archie Griffin . . . gained 3,200 yards on 619 carries . . . scored 50 career TDs — 46 rushing, 3 receiving, and one on 99-yard kickoff return (1983 Fiesta Bowl) . . . had 17 100-yard rushing games . . . consensus All-America choice, Big 10 MVP, and Heisman runnerup to Doug Flutie as a junior in 1984 when he led nation in rushing (1,764), scoring (24 TDs), and all-purpose yards (2,441) . . . also led Buckeyes in receiving that year (42-479) . . . was 52-213-4 TDs rushing in senior campaign limited by foot injury suffered in practice on Labor Day . . . decided to attend OSU after talking with Griffin, then of the Cincinnati Bengals . . . backed up Tim Spencer (Chargers) as a freshman . . . Big 10 rushing leader as sophomore (222-1,999-20 TDs) . . . added 23 receptions (359 yards, 1 TD) that year . . . big junior season included legendary performance vs. Illinois when he practically single-handedly helped OSU overcome largest deficit in school history (24-0) and claim a 45-38 victory . . . rushed for 274 yards and 5 TDs (both OSU records), including a 67-yarder when he reversed field and ran most of the way after losing one shoe . . . capped that performance with game-winning 36-yard TD jaunt.

PERSONAL: Single . . . majored in social work . . . born and raised in Dayton, OH, where he was a star athlete at Roth High . . . rushed for 1,701 yards as a senior . . . started at forward on two straight state championship basketball teams . . . had near .500 batting average as baseball centerfielder . . . youngest player (age 16) ever re-invited to Cincinnati Reds' tryout camp . . . ran on state championship 400-yard relay team . . . enjoys bowling, movies, and gospel music . . . big fan of singer Patti LaBelle, a Philadelphia native . . . secret ambition is to star in a movie opposite Jayne Kennedy . . . started football camp this summer in Dayton . . . resides in Cherry Hill, NJ.

RANDALL CUNNINGHAM, QB 12
Nevada-Las Vegas 6-4 192 Born: 3/27/63
Draft 2, 1985 Year Eagle: 3 Year NFL: 3

1986 SEASON: Displayed some of his vast potential, both as a passer and runner, and gave Eagles' fans a preview of things to come in 1987 when he is expected to take over the quarterback job . . . spent first half of season as Birds' 3rd down specialist at QB and gained valuable experience . . . that playing time prepared him for late-season duty in which he started 5 of the final 6 games in place of Ron Jaworski, who was sidelined by a finger injury . . . led Eagles in rushing TDs (5) . . . also finished as Birds' 2nd leading rusher (tops among NFL QBs) with 540 yards and a team-high 8.2 yards per carry average . . . showed improvement at reading defenses and spotting secondary receivers

... was 111-209-1, 391-53.1-7-8 TDs passing . . . in his 5 starts, put up impressive figures as a passer (83-150-55.3-4-5 TDs) . . . was named Eagles' game-MVP vs. Giants (11/9) when he took over for Jaworski in 2nd half with Eagles trailing 17-0 . . . threw career-long 75-yard TD pass to Mike Quick and ran for another TD, but the Birds fell short, 17-14 . . . the following week, in his first start of season, rushed for career-high 110 yards vs. Detroit (11/16), only the 2nd time in Eagles' history that a QB had run for over 100 yards in a game (Jack Concannon ran for 129 vs. Pittsburgh in 1966) . . . it was also the first time since 1976 that any QB in the NFL had rushed for over 100 yards (Denver's Norris Weese gained 120 yards on 12 carries vs. Chicago on 12/12/76) . . . two weeks later, had best game of career when Eagles defeated the host Raiders 33-27 in overtime (11/30) . . . in that game, established career highs for completions (22, tie), attempts (39), yards (298) and TD passes (3), and plunged one yard for game-winning TD . . . did not play at Dallas (12/14) after injuring thumb vs. Cardinals.

CAREER: Eagles' 2nd round draft choice in 1985 (37th overall) . . . played in 6 games and started 4 early in his rookie season vs. Rams, Redskins, Giants, and Saints . . . finished season 34-81-548-48.0-8-1 TD passing . . . was Birds' 3rd leading rusher with 205 yards (7.1-yards per carry avg.), including 90 yards vs. Rams in first pro start . . . threw first career TD pass at Washington (9/22), a 17-yarder to Earnest Jackson, and rushed for 60 yards as he led Birds' to victory at RFK Stadium and earned a game ball.

COLLEGE: Enjoyed outstanding career at Nevada-Las Vegas . . . became only 3rd quarterback in NCAA history to throw for over 2,500 yards in three consecutive seasons (John Elway and Doug Flutie preceded him) . . . progressed from fourth-string as freshman to starter by 2nd game of sophomore season and finished career by setting every Pacific Coast Athletic Association and UNLV passing record, including completion percentage (57.9), completions (614), yards (8,290), and TD passes (60) . . . as a punter, posted 45.2-yard average . . . selected 1st team Kodak/Coaches All-America punter as a junior . . . chosen 1st team All-PCAA quarterback and punter 3 straight years . . . only player to earn PCAA of the year honors twice (1983-84).

PERSONAL: Single . . . majored in recreation/business . . . was born in Santa Barbara, CA, where he was an outstanding football (All-America), basketball, and track performer at Santa Barbara High School . . . followed in the footsteps of his brother Sam, who starred at running back for Southern California and the New England Patriots . . . credits Sam with being a strong influence in his life . . . as a youth, spent endless hours with Sam and his other two brothers at local Boys' Club . . . hopes to work with Boys' Clubs in the future in order to be a role model for youngsters . . . enjoys speaking to high school students about the values of education and family . . . resides in Blackwood, NJ.

WHAT THEY'RE SAYING ABOUT RANDALL CUNNINGHAM

"[Denver's John] Elway's got a cannon. I mean a Goose Gossage fastball. The only one I can think of with that kind of arm is that kid in Philadelphia, Randall Cunningham. He's not refined the way Elway is, but he's got a cannon, too. He's got some amazing talent."

— Giants' strong safety Kenny Hill

[About his elusiveness] "Randall Cunningham is just unbelievable. He must shower in vaseline. There's only one Cunningham in the entire NFL and he really gives the Eagles' offense life."

— Raiders' cornerback Lester Hayes

"Randall brings us the dimensions we're looking for in a quarterback. He's a guy who can make you three big first downs a game [running]. The defense doesn't have any way of stopping him. He just does it on his own. If he gives us three first downs a game, that gives us 12 more shots at a defense. When you get enough shots at a defense, something positive is going to happen for you. When he's scrambling around and makes one of those big plays, either running or throwing, that lifts the whole team."

— Eagles' head coach Buddy Ryan

"Randall seems to learn more and more every time he steps on the field . . . I don't think he'll do everything he wants right away. You can't do everything overnight. A young guy coming into this league has to know a whole lot. It's going to take him a while, but he's going to be outstanding."

— Eagles' all-pro wide receiver Mike Quick

WHAT THEY'RE SAYING ABOUT REGGIE WHITE

[On his ability to play either defensive tackle or end] . . . "It's great. He's like Howie Long of the Raiders. They move him around; we move Reggie around. That way he can scare the hell out of a whole bunch of people instead of just one."

— Eagles' head coach Buddy Ryan

[On his status among the defensive linemen] . . . "I've been around a lot of great defensive linemen and he's the best I've ever been around. He's got better mobility than any of them. I think he's not just going to be good; I think he's going to dominate the game, and that's what we're looking for."

— Eagles' head coach Buddy Ryan

[On his pass rushing] . . . "When Reggie is left on a [running] back, it's 'Katie, bar the door,' your quarterback is going down."

— Redskins' head coach Joe Gibbs

DAVID ALEXANDER, G
6-3 279 Draft Round: 5 (121st overall)
Tulsa Born: 7/28/64

Player personnel director Joe Woolley: "David is a good, tough, hard-nosed kid, who is a real battler. Effort is a big part of his game. He also is a long snapper, which is a big plus for any player with that ability. We feel he can push people and provide some strong competition."

COLLEGE: Named ESPN's 1986 offensive lineman of the year for its televised games . . . also was selected honorable mention All-America and 1st team All-Missouri Valley Conference . . . moved from right tackle to right guard prior to junior season when Tulsa switched to the wishbone offense . . . used good speed and strength to become a fine pulling guard . . . leader of an offense that gained over 500 yards in total offense five times in last two seasons, and over 600 yards three times . . . was a 1st team All-MVC choice in 1985 when Golden Hurricane averaged 308.3 rushing yards per game . . . was only sophomore to be named 1st team All-MVC in 1984 . . . started first three games in 1983 before suffering a broken ankle . . . redshirted 1982 season when he made switch from defensive line to offensive line.

JEROME BROWN, DT

6-2 292 Draft Round: 1 (9th overall)

Miami Born: 2/4/65

Head coach Buddy Ryan: "Jerome will be our starting right defensive tackle. He is an aggressive, gifted kid. Physically, he's got good size to throw around in the middle of the line and collapse the pocket. If you are going to rush the passer, you have to have people coming up the middle in the quarterback's face. That's all there is to it, and he's that type of player."

University of Miami head coach Jimmy Johnson: "I think Jerome is a confident individual who gives maximum effort and will be a leader. Some do it quietly, and some say what they're going to do and go out and do it. Jerome's capable of backing up anything he says."

Jerome Brown on being a teammate of Eagles' all-pro defensive lineman

Reggie White: "Reggie is an idol to me. I hope to help him out a little. I'll be his sidekick. I don't think I'll ever be as great as him right away. I would like to learn from him."

COLLEGE: One of the top defensive linemen in the country . . . a dominating style of player who can simply overpower opponents at the line of scrimmage . . . earned unanimous 1st team All-America recognition from nearly every sports publication as a senior in 1986 . . . also was a finalist in the voting for both the Outland and Lombardi trophies, given to the premier linemen in college football . . . known for making big plays in the crucial games . . . matured into a real leader on Miami's young defense last year which went on to rank fourth in the nation . . . was voted the Plummer Award by teammates, signifying his leadership and spirit . . . had 75 tackles, including 5 quarterback sacks, in stellar senior season, despite missing two games and parts of others with turf toe injury on both feet . . . top efforts included 12 tackles vs. South Carolina, 11 vs. Oklahoma, and 6 tackles and a sack in the Fiesta Bowl vs. Penn State . . . played in the Japan Bowl and scored a short-yardage touchdown as a tailback when the East squad's RBs were depleted due to injury . . . as a junior, won 2nd team All-America and 3rd team All-South acclaim after recording 75 tackles (6 sacks) . . . was voted defensive player of the week by AP, UPI, and Sports Illustrated after Oklahoma game in which he made 16 tackles, 2 sacks, forced a fumble, and blocked a field goal . . . shared playing time at NT and DT early in sophomore campaign before taking over starting role for second half of year . . . was one of the few freshman to see much action on Hurricanes' national championship team of 1983 . . . was a top special teams player and pass rush specialist, registering 6 sacks.

6-3 262 Draft Round: 10 (260th overall)
Oregon State Born: 8/1/64

Player personnel director Joe Woolley: "Paul has got speed, quickness, and good size. He has good overall athletic ability, and we feel he will be able to improve his pass rush technique."

COLLEGE: Transferred to Oregon State after Drake University disbanded its football program following the 1985 season . . . earned 3 letters as a defensive end at Drake from 1982-84 . . . redshirted in 1985 at Drake after 3rd game due to thumb surgery . . . was a 2nd team All-PAC 10 choice last year at Oregon State despite missing two games with a shoulder injury . . . registered 41 tackles, including 3 sacks.

PERSONAL: Single . . . has a degree in advertising . . . was born in Evergreen Park, IL . . . attended Brother Rice High in Chicago, IL, near his hometown of Oak Lawn, IL . . . older brother Jim was a teammate at Drake . . . younger brother Mike, a middle linebacker, will be a junior at Western Kentucky . . . is an outdoors enthusiast.

BYRON EVANS, LB

6-2 225 Draft Round: 4 (93rd overall)
Arizona Born: 2/23/64

Player personnel director Joe Woolley: "Byron's stock went up all year. This kid goes forward and really knocks the hell out of people. That's the best way to put it. He played at about 218, but as his weight went up [this offseason], so did his grades in every category — size, strength, speed. And he plays faster than his speed [in the 40-yard dash] indicates. He's a dominating player on the inside and really has an instinct for the ball. When he goes after them, he really goes after them, the way we like 'em to go after people. If he gets to 230, that'll be big enough [to play inside linebacker]."

Former Washington State head coach Jim Walden (now at Iowa State): "He may be the finest linebacker I've ever seen . . . He is so good that he makes some of the other people look like they have gum on their shoes. Nothing anyone does against him works."

COLLEGE: Selected 2nd team All-America and 1st team All-PAC as a senior . . . was also named PAC-10 defensive player of the year after leading the conference in tackles (196) for the second straight season . . . was a finalist for the Butkus Award, given to the top collegiate linebacker . . . NCAA defensive player of the week after making 29 tackles, a sack, and two forced fumbles vs. Southern California . . . voted defensive MVP of the Aloha Bowl for his 14 tackles in Arizona's 30-21 defeat of North Carolina . . . played in the Hula and Senior bowls . . . as a junior in 1985, became only the sixth player in school history to record over 100 solo tackles (118) . . . capped season by being named defensive MVP of the Sun Bowl when he registered 23 tackles vs. Georgia . . .

amassed 126 tackles in 1984 . . . was Pac-10 defensive player of the week for his 9-tackle, 2-interception effort vs. Oregon . . . was a reserve linebacker in 1983 when he blocked a punt and returned it for a touchdown vs. Oregon State . . . redshirted his freshman season in 1982.

PERSONAL: Single . . . liberal arts major who wants to be an actor when his playing days are over . . . was an all-state linebacker and quarterback and lettered in basketball (guard) at South Mountain High in his hometown and birthplace of Phoenix, AZ, where he also was an honor student.

KEN LAMBIOTTE, QB

6-3 187 Draft Round: 9 (232nd overall)
William and Mary Born: 10/17/63

Player personnel director Joe Woolley: "Ken is a strong young quarterback. He has good overall athletic ability. His statistics last season were certainly impressive. We feel he is a player who has a chance to become a good NFL quarterback, compared to some other players that we believe are as good as they are going to be at this time."

CHRIS PIKE, DT

6-7 291 Draft Round: 6b (158th overall)

Player personnel director Joe Wolley: "Chris is a big, massive guy. He is a project-type player. I saw him in a game on TV once and he was killing people. I mean just mashing people. And then he got hurt (knee). Here is a guy who has a lot of ability. He is definitely an inside (defensive tackle) player. We hope he can rehabilitate and come around quick enough. He was a force. You just don't want to miss getting a player like this. He can be a dominating player."

COLLEGE: Named ESPN's 1986 defensive lineman of the year for its televised games . . . a potentially dominant defensive tackle who showed flashes of brilliance before being sidelined by a knee injury last season . . . a tall, imposing figure, with good strength . . . transferred to Tulsa in 1983 from North Carolina . . . was off to a fast start in 1986 before injuring a knee vs. Cal State-Fullerton and missing final 6 games . . . finished season with 21 tackles, including 4 sacks, and a total of 10 tackles-for-losses . . . top effort included 3 sacks vs. Tennessee Tech . . . took over starting right DT spot in 1985 . . . sat out 1983 season under transfer rule . . . originally enrolled at UNC in 1982 . . . chosen with pick acquired from Seattle in 1986 by trading guard Greg Naron.

BEN TAMBURELLO, G-C

6-3 278 Draft Round: 3 (65th overall)
Auburn Born: 9/9/64

Head coach Buddy Ryan: "Ben can play center or guard. And he'll get an opportunity at both spots. He also can make the long snap. I liked what I saw of him at the Senior Bowl. Every time he took a stand on a guy, he stopped him right in his tracks. He's strong enough to flip 'em over. He's tough and smart. He's got a lot of plusses on his side."

COLLEGE: One of the premier centers in the country . . . was selected 1st team All-America and All-Southeastern Conference by all major sports publications in 1986 and was a finalist for both the Lombardi and Outland trophies, given to the premier linemen in college football . . . an intelligent player and a dominating blocker . . . a pillar in an offensive line that helped Auburn lead the SEC in rushing in 1985 with 312.5 yards per game and in total offense last year with 417.3 yards per game . . . helped clear the way for outstanding running backs Bo Jackson (1985 Heisman Trophy winner) and Brent Fullwood (leading rusher in the nation in 1986; Green Bay's 1st round pick) . . . voted team captain by players as a senior . . . was selected as War Eagles' top offensive lineman in each of his final two seasons . . . as a junior, was named 1st team All-America (Football News), 2nd team All-America (AP) and 2nd team All-SEC after opening holes for Jackson . . . shared playing time as a sophomore after breaking a hand early in the season . . . earned 1st team Freshman All-America honors in 1983 when he was a part-time starter at center.

PERSONAL: Pronounced: TAM-bur-REL-lo . . . single . . . a 1st team Academic All-SEC choice with a 3.05 GPA in business . . . member of the Fellowship of Christian Athletes . . . patterns his playing style after Miami Dolphins' all-pro center Dwight Stephenson . . . was a high school All-America at Shades Valley High in his hometown and birthplace of Birmingham, AL . . . played center and defensive end . . . prepped at Tennessee Military Institute, where he gained 60 pounds, before enrolling at Auburn . . . was honored in Birmingham with a "Ben Tamburello Day" on May 27.

BRIAN WILLIAMS, T

6-7 293 Draft Round: 7a (177th overall)
Central Michigan Born: 3/30/64

Player personnel director Joe Woolley: "Brian was a very dominant player in his league. He needs some work, but he's a big guy with good foot quickness. He's got a chance to be a player. He's aggressive; I felt like he had a mean streak in him. At the Senior Bowl, he went against Reggie Rogers (Detroit Lions' first round pick), and Rogers only got to the quarterback once."

COLLEGE: Regarded as the premier offensive lineman in the Mid-American Conference . . . exhibited fine run blocking and pass protection skills . . . was a starter during all four years at Central Michigan . . . was a 1st team All-MAC selection last year when Central Michigan's rushing attack was geared to his side of the line (left tackle) . . . earned 2nd team All-MAC honors in 1984 and 1985 . . . was runnerup for conference's freshman of the year award in 1983 after redshirting in 1982 season . . . made the long snap.

INDIVIDUAL NFC RANKINGS

Reggie White — 3rd, sacks (18, also third in NFL)

Mike Quick — 11th, receptions (60); 7th, receiving yards (939); 2nd, TD rec. (9)

Paul McFadden — 7th, kick-scoring (86)

Ron Jaworski — 8th, passer ratings (70.2)

Keith Byars — 16th, rushing (577)

Randall Cunningham — 18th, rushing (540)

John Teltschik — 1st, punts (108); 5th (tie), punting average (41.6)

NOTE: Randall Cunningham did not throw enough passes to qualify for ratings. He needed 224 and had 209. His rating of 72.9 would have tied him for 6th

PERSONNEL GUIDE

WAIVERS: The waiver system is a process by which player contracts or NFL rights to players are made available by a club to other NFL clubs. During this process, a club may make a claim to obtain the player or "waive" its right to do so—thus the term "waiver." Claiming clubs are assigned players on a priority based upon the inverse of won-lost standings. The claiming period is normally ten days during the offseason and 24 hours from early July through December. If a player passes through waivers unclaimed or not recalled, he becomes a free agent, under the Collective Bargaining Agreement. From February 1 through October 20, any veteran who has acquired four years of pension credit may, if about to be assigned to another club through the waiver system, reject such assignment and become a free agent.

INJURED RESERVE: This is a reserve list category that may be used for the player by a club if the player is injured in a practice session or game of his club in any year, after having passed the club's physical examination in that year. If a player fails the club's initial physical examination, he is not available for reserve/injured; the club may instead use the procedure of Physically Unable to Perform or Non-Football Injury/Illness, whichever is applicable. If a player is physically unable to play football for a minimum of four games from the time he is placed upon reserve/injured, he may be re-activated by his club upon clearing procedural recall waivers. Also, each club is allowed five free reactivation moves each season, three of which may be used for players placed on reserve/injured before the final roster cutdown provided such reactivations do not occur until after the trading deadline. Playoff teams will be allowed one move for each game they participate in.

RESERVE LISTS: Included among the various categories on the reserve list are retired, injured, non-football injury/illness, physically unable to perform, military, and did not report.

ROSTER CUT-DOWN DATES: All NFL clubs must reduce their active roster totals to 60 players on September 1; and to 45 players on September 8.

TRADES: Unrestricted trading is allowed between the clubs through the Tuesday following the sixth regular season game (October 20) and does not resume again until February 1.

1986 EAGLES GAME-BY-GAME

(Figures are actual attendance)

Game 1, Sept. 7 Washington 41, Eagles 14 RFK Stadium 53,982

In the head coaching debut of Buddy Ryan, the Eagles kept the score close for a half but eventually succumbed to the host Redskins, 41-14. In the first half, Philadelphia outgained the Redskins and trailed by 20-14. In the second half, however, the Skins overpowered the Birds, who managed just three first downs and 67 total yards after intermission. Offensively, the Eagles hurt themselves with penalties, the lack of a rushing attack, and a poor third-down conversion rate (4 of 15). Field position was a key factor all day, as the Eagles started on their own 25-yard-line or worse on 12 of 13 possessions while Washington began 8 of 14 drives from their own 46 or better, including one at the Eagles' 8. Steve Cox consistently boomed kickoffs deep into the Eagles' end zone and contributed a 55-yard field goal on the last play of the first half. The Skins were paced by QB Jay Schroeder, who threw for 289 yards, including two TDs, and ran for another, and RB Kelvin Bryant, who scored once through the air and once on the ground. Philadelphia's starting lineup included 11 players who did not start the final game of 1985.

Game 2, Sept. 14 Chicago 13, Eagles 10 (OT) Soldier Field 65,130

A week of intense media-hype preceded the game which featured the return to Soldier Field of Buddy Ryan, the Birds' new head coach who was the Bears' defensive coordinator from 1978-1985 and helped them win Super Bowl XX the previous season. On game day, the Eagles-Bears matchup fully lived up to its advance billing as each team's defense was stingy. Philadelphia's defense registered 3 interceptions (including 2 in its own end zone by Andre Waters) and a fumble recovery while the Bears' unit stole 4 passes and recovered 2 fumbles. In the end, it was not until 5:56 of overtime had elapsed before Kevin Butler finally gave the Bears the victory with a 23-yard field goal. Eagles' QB Ron Jaworski compared the game to a boxing match when he said, "We went 15 rounds with the champion and lost at the bell." The Eagles took a 3-0 halftime lead, but Bears' RB Walter Payton, who set season highs against the Birds with 34 carries and 177 yards, put Chicago on top with a one-yard TD plunge in the 3rd quarter. A field goal by Butler increased the lead to 10-3 before a TD pass from Jaworski to Mike Quick in the 4th quarter sent the game into overtime. In the extra stanza, the Eagles' fumbled the opening kickoff and Chicago took over on the Birds' 35-yard line. Nine plays later, Butler booted the winning field goal.

Game 3, Sept. 21 Denver 33, Eagles 7 Veterans Stadium 63,839

Things started out poorly for the Eagles and never got better in their 1986 home debut against the eventual AFC champion Denver Broncos. Philadelphia fumbled the opening kickoff through the end zone to give the Broncos a safety and then allowed Denver to march 70 yards for a FG on the ensuing possession. Then on the Eagles' second offensive series, Mike Harden intercepted a pass by Randall Cunningham and returned it 32 yards for a TD. In the 2nd quarter a TD pass from John Elway to Dave Studdard and a 4-yard run by Sammy Winder increased the Broncos' lead to 26-0. Winder, who finished the day with 104 yards on 20 carries, widened the margin to 33-0 with a 17-yard run in the 3rd quarter. Philadelphia averted a shutout later in the 3rd quarter when Kenny Jackson hauled in a 29-yard scoring toss from Cunningham. Jackson was one of the few bright spots for the Eagles, catching 5 passes for 127 yards in one of his best days as a pro.

Game 4, Sept. 28 Eagles 34, LA Rams 20 Veterans Stadium 65,646

The Eagles' offense exploded for 27 points in the first half against the previously unbeaten Rams as Philadelphia coasted to a 34-20 victory, the first in the head coaching career of Buddy Ryan. The Birds amassed 265 yards in total offense in the first half while the defense held the Rams to just 74 yards and registered two interceptions. A 22-yard field goal by Paul McFadden and a 15-yard pass from Ron Jaworski to John Spagnola gave the Birds a 10-0 first-quarter lead. Early in the 2nd quarter, Keith Byars (17-78 rushing) took a pitchout to the left and hurled an option pass to a wide open Mike Quick for a 55-yard touchdown. Another FG by McFadden and a scoring pass from Jaworski to Kenny Jackson then made it 27-0 at intermission. In the 3rd quarter, Jaworski threw his 3rd TD pass of the day, a 16-yarder, to rookie RB Junior Tautalatasi to stretch the Birds' lead to 34-0. The Rams closed out the scoring with 3 late TD passes by Steve Dils, who had replaced injured starter Steve Bartkowski.

Game 5, Oct. 5 Eagles 16, Atlanta 0

Atlanta-Fulton County Stadium 57,104

When the Eagles traveled to Atlanta to meet the Falcons, it marked the 5th straight game for Philadelphia against a club with an undefeated record. Atlanta (4-0) also possessed the NFL's number-one offense in total yards and rushing. The Eagles, however, came through with an outstanding defensive effort and defeated Atlanta 16-0 for their first shutout since a 38-0 victory over St. Louis on Dec. 20, 1981. LB Garry Cobb led the Birds with 13 tackles, including a career-high 4 sacks, and was named NFL defensive player of the week by Sports Illustrated and NFC defensive player of the week by the NFL office. FS Terry Hoage, in his first start in place of injured all-pro Wes Hopkins, also made 13 tackles. Offensive punch came from Paul McFadden's 3 field goals and a miraculous one-handed, diving catch by Mike Quick of an 8-yard pass from Ron Jaworski for the game's only touchdown.

Giants' QB Phil Simms completed 20 of 29 passes for 214 yards, including TD strikes of 10 and 37 yards, and ran for another to lead the eventual Super Bowl champions to a 35-3 victory. RB Joe Morris' 30-yard TD run got New York on the board first. The Eagles responded with a 29-yard field goal by Paul McFadden but it was their only scoring for the day. After leading 14-3 at the half, Simms' first TD pass put the Giants ahead 21-3. New York stretched the margin to 28-3 later in the 3rd quarter when Jeff Rutledge tossed a 13-yard TD pass to LB Harry Carson on a fake field goal. Simms' 37-yard TD pass to Lee Rouson in the 4th quarter closed out the scoring. Offensively, the Eagles were held to season lows for total yards (117), rushing yards (59), gross passing yards (58), first downs (9), and points (3).

Game 7, Oct. 19

Dallas 17, Eagles 14

Veterans Stadium 68,572

Quarterback Randall Cunningham replaced Matt Cavanaugh (the starter due to an elbow injury suffered by Ron Jaworski a week earlier) at the beginning of the 2nd half and nearly guided the Eagles to a victory. Philadelphia came up short, however, when Rafael Septien's 38-yard field goal with two seconds left to play gave the Cowboys a 17-14 win. Dallas took a 7-0 lead on the first offensive series of the game when Steve Pelluer, starting in place of injured Danny White, capped a 76-yard drive with a 22-yard touchdown pass to Doug Cosbie. Cunningham, who had mostly seen action as the Birds' 3rd-down-and-long quarterback in the first 6 games of the season, charged up the offense on the first series of the 3rd quarter. Following a 50-yard run by Junior Tautalatasi, Cunningham tied the score with a 14-yard TD run. Dallas responded with a TD run by Tony Dorsett, but Cunningham again knotted the score with a 15-yard TD strike to Mike Quick midway through the 4th quarter. With 1:50 left to play and the ball on the Cowboys' 37-yard-line, White was inserted into the lineup and marched Dallas to the winning field goal. The key play on the drive came on 3rd-and-13 at the Eagles' 36 when Timmy Newsome turned a short pass into an 18-yard gain and a first down.

Game 8, Oct. 26

Eagles 23, San Diego 7

Veterans Stadium 41,469

On a rainy, gray day, the Eagles raised their record to 3-5 at the halfway point of the season with a 23-7 victory over the San Diego Chargers. Philadelphia stifled the Chargers' potent offense, which was without the services of injured QB Dan Fouts, RB Lionel James, and WR Wes Chandler. Going into the game, San Diego's passing attack ranked 3rd in the league. Philadelphia's 46 Defense, however, held the Chargers to their lowest totals to date in 1986 for points (7), first downs (14), and net passing yards (187). San Diego converted just 3 of 17 third-down attempts. Gary Anderson, the NFL's 2nd leading receiver, was held without a catch for the first time all season. The Birds' defense intercepted one pass (by Alonso Johnson) that set up the 2nd of Paul McFadden's 3 field goals, and recovered 2 fumbles, the last one by rookie Reggie Singletary on the Chargers' 15-yard line that set up Philly's first TD, a 10-yard pass from Ron Jaworski to Mike Quick. After San Diego got on the board with a 20-yard pass from Tom Flick to Charlie Joiner, RB Keith Byars, the Eagles' number-one draft pick, scored his first pro TD on a 2-yard plunge.

Game 9, Nov. 2
St. Louis 13, Eagles 10
Busch Stadium 33,051

The Eagles tested the old sports adage that "It's a game of inches" and lost a heartbreaking 13-10 decision to the Cardinals. After RB Stump Mitchell's one-yard TD run with 36 seconds remaining in the 4th period put the Cards on top 13-10, Philadelphia made a valiant last-ditch effort. The Eagles took over on their own 23-yard line and after 3 straight completions by QB Ron Jaworski, found themselves with a first down on the St. Louis 36. On the next play, Jaworski hit WR Gregg Garrity with a short pass over the middle. Garrity eluded several tacklers before finally being brought down by Cedric Mack at the Cards' 2-yard-line as time ran out. Philadelphia had opened the scoring with a one-yard TD run by Charles Crawford in the 1st quarter and a field goal by Paul McFadden in the 3rd quarter. St. Louis did not get untracked until 9:56 had elapsed in the 4th quarter when QB Cliff Stroud threw a 14-yard TD pass to Roy Green. Minutes later, Mitchell's TD run set the stage for the exciting ending.

Game 10, Nov. 9
NY Giants 17, Eagles 14
Veterans Stadium 60,601

Seeking to avenge their 35-3 loss to the Giants in Week 6, the Eagles staged a strong comeback in the 4th quarter before falling to the eventual Super Bowl champions, 17-14. The defeat dropped Philadelphia's record to 3-7 and marked the 2nd time in as many weeks that the Birds had lost by three points. New York was paced by all-pro RB Joe Morris, who rushed for 111 yards and 2 touchdowns. The Giants took a 10-0 lead at the half with an 18-yard TD run by Morris and a 22-yard field goal by Raul Allegre. They increased their lead to 17-0 in the 3rd quarter on Morris' three-yard TD run. On the Eagles' first offensive series of the 2nd half, however, QB Ron Jaworski suffered a torn tendon in the little finger on his passing hand that would sideline him for the remainder of the season and thrust Randall Cunningham into the starting role. Cunningham responded well, rallying Philadelphia to two touchdowns in the final quarter on a 75-yard TD strike to Mike Quick (the longest completion of Cunningham's career) and a one-yard TD run of his own.

Game 11, Nov. 16 Detroit 13, Eagles 11 Veterans Stadium 54,568

The Eagles failed to score a touchdown and allowed 11 sacks as Eddie Murray booted a 41-yard field goal with 12 seconds remaining to give the Lions a 13-11 victory. It was the third straight loss (by a total of 8 points) for the Birds despite the improved play of their defense. The Eagles' NFL ranking in total defense jumped from 23rd to 11th in Weeks 8-11. Against Detroit, Philadelphia's defense allowed its lowest figures of the season for total yards (186), rushing yards (40), and first downs (12), and registered its only safety of the year when Greg Brown trapped Lions' QB Joe Ferguson in the end zone. The defense also made a big play late in the game. After Paul McFadden's 3rd field goal gave the Eagles an 11-10 lead with just 2 minutes left to play, rookie LB Seth Joyner intercepted a pass by Ferguson at the Eagles' 39-yard line, which seemingly preserved the win. But Eagles' QB Randall Cunningham was stripped of the ball on 2nd down and the fumble was recovered by Detroit LB Mike Cofer. Six plays later, Murray kicked the winning field goal. Cunningham led all rushers with 110 yards, only the second time in Eagles' history a QB rushed for over 100 yards. (Jack Concannon gained 129 in 1966 vs. Steelers.) It was also the first time since 1976 that an NFL QB had gained over 100 yards on the ground.

Game 12, Nov. 23 Seattle 24, Eagles 20 The Kingdome 55,786

With 1:21 to go in an evenly played first half, the Seahawks' special teams broke things wide open. Kerry Justin blocked a punt by Philadelphia's John Teltschik and Eric Lane returned it 12 yards for a touchdown. When the Eagles' next offensive series stalled, Teltschik boomed a 52-yard punt to rookie Bobby Joe Edmonds, who raced 75 yards for a score. Suddenly, Seattle held a 21-6 lead at intermission. In the second half, however, Eagles' QB Randall Cunningham completed 12 of 18 passes for 140 yards, including two TD tosses to WR Kenny Jackson that cut Seattle's lead to 21-20 with 8:28 left to play. The Seahawks then used up 6:19 on the clock as they marched from their own 29 to the Eagles' 18. From there, Norm Johnson booted a 35-yard field goal and left it up to the Seahawks' defensive unit to shut down the Eagles' two-minute offense. Krieg paced the Seahawks' attack with 288 yards passing, including a 72-yard TD to Daryl Turner.

Marcus Allen fumbled on 2nd-and-6 from the Eagles' 16-yard-line. Eagles' SS Andre Waters recovered the ball and raced 81 yards to the Raiders' 4-yard line. Two plays later, Cunningham plunged over for the winning TD. Cunningham's brilliant day included career-high passing figures for attempts (39), completions (tie, 22), yards (298), and TDs (3). Quick also set a career-high with 3 TD receptions and registered the 16th 100-yard receiving game of his career. The Raiders were led by QB Jim Plunkett, who threw for 366 yards and 2 TDs, including an 81-yarder to Jesse Hester. Special teams also played a key role for both teams as LA's Fulton Walker opened the scoring with a 70-yard punt return for a TD. Later in the 1st quarter, Philadelphia's Gregg Garrity made the 2nd longest punt return in Eagles' history when he sprinted 76 yards for a score.

Eagles 33, LA Raiders 27 (OT)

LA Memorial Coliseum 53,338

The game may have been played in the famed Los Angeles Coliseum, but to the Eagles it was pure Hollywood when they defeated the host Raiders 33-27 in overtime. Philadelphia entered the game with a four-game losing streak while the Raiders had won 8 of their previous 9 games. Eagles' QB Randall Cunningham had given the Birds a 27-24 lead over the Raiders early in the 4th quarter when he threw his 3rd touchdown pass of the day to Mike Quick. Philadelphia's defense then stopped LA twice with interceptions. But the Birds themselves threw an interception with 1:54 left in regulation play that set up Chris Bahr's game-tying field goal. In overtime, Bill Pickel sacked Cunningham and caused a fumble that the Raiders recovered on the Birds' 42-yard line. With LA marching toward the winning score, RB Philadelphia's rushing attack amassed a season-high 230 yards, but the Birds' defense gave up a season-high 461 total yards in a 10-10 overtime tie with the Cardinals. The Eagles produced their best ground attack since a 259-yard effort against the Cardinals on Dec. 20, 1981. Rookie running backs Keith Byars (127 yards) and Anthony Toney (74 yards) each set career-high figures for rushing yards and became the first pair of Eagles' RBs to combine for over 200 yards in a game since 1979. Byars' effort also was the only 100-yard rushing game by a Birds' RB in 1986. Eagles' WR Mike Quick recorded his 2nd consecutive 100-yard receiving game and moved into a tie for 3rd place among Eagles' greats in that category (17). Philadelphia's defense also allowed its season-highs for pass completions (30) and passing yards (390) to the Cards' QB Neil Lomax. Early in the 4th quarter, Eagles' QB Randall Cunningham broke a 3-3 tie when he capped a 10-play, 48-yard drive with a 2-yard TD run. St. Louis tied the score when Lomax threw a 48-yard TD pass to Roy Green with 2:39 left in regulation play. In the first series of overtime, Reggie White blocked a 40-yard FG attempt by the Cards' Eric Schubert. Minutes later, the Eagles' Paul McFadden missed a 43-yard FG attempt. St. Louis' last effort, a 37-yard FG attempt with 9 seconds remaining, was tipped by Clyde Simmons and sailed wide right. Cunningham injured his thumb in the 4th quarter and Matt Cavanaugh filled in at QB the rest of the way.

With Matt Cavanaugh starting in place of injured QB Randall Cunningham (thumb), and Kenny Jackson filling in for WR Mike Quick (knee) in the 2nd half, the Eagles produced their first NFC East win of the year and only their 3rd victory in 16 tries at Texas Stadium. It was the Birds' first triumph at Dallas since Dec. 26, 1982. Cavanaugh completed 15 of 27 passes for 260 yards and 2 TDs to Jackson, including a 31-yarder with 3:57 left in the 4th quarter that put the Eagles ahead for good. It was the 2nd game-winning catch for Jackson against the Cowboys in two years. His 36-yard TD catch beat Dallas 16-14 on Oct. 20, 1985. Eagles' kicker Paul McFadden also starred with 3 field goals, including a 50-yarder, his longest of the season. For Dallas, Herschel Walker took center stage with 122 rushing yards and scored 2 TDs on an 84-yard run and an 84-yard reception — both the longest plays of the year against the Eagles. His TD run gave the Cowboys a 7-6 halftime lead, and his TD reception in the 4th quarter put Dallas ahead 21-16 before Jackson's heroics.

Washington 21, Eagles 14

Veterans Stadium 61,816

In their final game of the season, the Eagles held a 14-0 lead over Washington going into the 4th quarter. But Philadelphia allowed 3 touchdowns to the eventual NFC runnerup Redskins and bowed 21-14. Powered by their running game, the Eagles scored two touchdowns in the first quarter. On the Birds' 2nd offensive series of the game, they kept the ball on the ground for 11 of 12 plays before QB Randall Cunningham finally dove over for a TD from the one-yard line. Following a fumble by the Redskins on the ensuing kickoff, Anthony Toney capped a 5-play drive with a one-yard TD run, the first of his pro career. RBs Keith Byars and Toney accounted for 75 yards rushing in the 1st half; but when Toney sat out the 2nd half with a chest injury, the Eagles' ground attack suffered. Washington tied the game at 14-14 when QB Jay Schroeder culminated 80 and 64-yard drives with TD passes to Clint Didier and Don Warren, respectively. With 2:19 remaining to play, Washington marched 70 yards en route to George Rogers' game-winning 5-yard TD run.

The Eagles' Story

1933 Frankford Yellowjackets' franchise in the NFL awarded to syndicate headed by Bert Bell and Lud Wray for $2500. Club christened "Eagles" in honor of the symbol of the New Deal and the NRA. Eagles and Chicago Bears play in Philadelphia's first Sunday game (Nov. 12) at Baker Bowl. Game ends in a 3-3 tie.

1935 General manager Bert Bell proposes an annual college draft to equalize talent in league. Proposal is adopted on May 19 for the 1936 season.

1936 Eagles have first choice in inaugural college draft. Select University of Chicago back Jay Berwanger but fail to sign him. Bell becomes sole owner of club with $4,000 bid. Playing site for home games moves from Baker Bowl to Municipal Stadium.

1939 Davey O'Brien, Texas Christian's All-American quarterback, signs with Eagles for reported $12,000 per year salary and percentage of the gate. O'Brien plays in every game and sets NFL passing yardage record with 1,324 yards. On October 22, the Eagles play in the first televised pro football game and defeat the Brooklyn Dodgers, 23-14, at Brooklyn's Ebbets Field. Allan "Skip" Walz broadcasts the game for NBC.

1940 Home playing site switches from Municipal Stadium to Shibe Park. Art Rooney of Pittsburgh buys half interest in the Eagles after selling the Pittsburgh franchise to Alexis Thompson of New York.

1941 Rooney and Thompson swap franchises, Rooney returning to Pittsburgh and Thompson taking over the Eagles. Bert Bell joins Rooney as a full-time partner in Pittsburgh. Thompson hires Earle (Greasy) Neale as head coach of the Eagles.

1943 Eagles merge with Pittsburgh Steelers. Team known as "Steagles." Merger dissolved at end of season.

1944 First draft choice Steve Van Buren debuts as Eagles' halfback. Team finishes in second place with 7-1-2 record.

1945 Team again finishes in second place with 7-3 record and leads league in scoring with 272 points. Van Buren leads NFL with 832 rushing yards and 110 points.

1946 Team finishes second for third straight year with 6-5 record.

1947 Rookie end Pete Pihos, Van Buren, and Bosh Pritchard combine with an overpowering defense to lead Philadelphia into the NFL championship game for the first time. Chicago Cardinals score 28-21 victory to win title at icy Comiskey Park.

1948 Eagles win their first NFL championship defeating the Chicago Cardinals, 7-0, in a blinding snowstorm at Shibe Park. Team finishes with overall record of 10-2-1.

1949 Alexis Thompson sells Eagles for $250,000 to a syndicate headed by local businessman James P. Clark. Vince McNally is named general manager. University of Pennsylvania All-America center-linebacker Chuck Bednarik is a first round draft choice. Eagles win third straight Eastern Division title and defend their NFL championship with a 14-0 victory over the Los Angeles Rams. Team finishes with overall record of 12-1.

1950's

- 1951 Alvin (Bo) McMillan replaces Greasy Neale as head coach after a 6-6 season in 1950. McMillan becomes ill the night before the season opener and is replaced as head coach by Wayne Millner. End-placekicker Bobby Walston is named rookie of the year.
- 1952 Jim Trimble succeeds Wayne Millner as head coach. Team rides strong defense to 7-5 second place finish.
- 1953 Bobby Thomason and Adrian Burk combine to pass for a league-high 3,089 yards. Pete Pihos catches 63 passes for 1,049 yards and 10 touchdowns to lead league. Eagles finish in second place and snap Cleveland's 11-game winning streak with 42-27 win in season finale.
- 1954 Bobby Walston leads league in scoring with 114 points. Eagles finish second for third straight year with second straight 7-4-1 record.
- 1955 Pihos again leads all NFL pass receivers with 62 catches for 864 yards. Joseph A. Donoghue, Eagles' vice president/secretary, is elected assistant treasurer of the NFL.
- 1956 Hugh Devore replaces Jim Trimble as head coach.
- 1957 Rookie quarterback Sonny Jurgensen highlights season by passing Eagles to 17-7 upset of Cleveland Browns.
- 1958 Buck Shaw signs as head coach replacing Hugh Devore. Eagles acquire quarterback Norm Van Brocklin in trade with Los Angeles. Team moves home games from Connie Mack Stadium to University of Pennsylvania's Franklin Field and attendance almost doubles.
- 1959 With Pete Retzlaff and Tommy McDonald his chief targets, Norm Van Brocklin passes Eagles to 7-5 record and second place tie with Cleveland.

1960's

- 1960 Quarterback Norm Van Brocklin and Chuck Bednarik, who plays 60 minutes at center and linebacker, pace the Eagles to their first Eastern Division title in 11 years. The Birds then win their third NFL championship with a come-from-behind 17-13 victory over Green Bay. Van Brocklin, the league's most valuable player, and head coach Buck Shaw both announce their retirements at the end of the season.
- 1961 Nick Skorich replaces Buck Shaw as head coach, and Sonny Jurgensen takes over as the starting quarterback. Despite Jurgensen's record-setting season, the Eagles fail to repeat as division champions with a 10-4 record.
- 1962 Injuries in unprecedented numbers hit Eagles and the team wins only three games and falls to last place.
- 1963 Timmy Brown sets an NFL record for total offense in a season. Developer Jerry Wolman purchases the franchise.

1964 Former Chicago Cardinals and Washington Redskins coach Joe Kuharich signs as head coach and begins a series of major trades to rebuild the club.

1966 After extensive roster changes, the Eagles finish 9-5 for their first winning season in five years.

1967 Quarterback Norm Snead and flanker Ben Hawkins set respective team passing and receiving records, but key injuries to other players contribute to a disappointing second place finish and 6-7-1 record.

1969 Leonard Tose purchases the franchise from Jerry Wolman for $16.1 million, at the time a record price for a professional sports team. Tose names former receiving great Pete Retzlaff as general manager and Jerry Williams as head coach.

1970's

1971 The Eagles move to a new home at Veterans Stadium. After three consecutive crushing losses at the beginning of the season, assistant Ed Khayat replaces Jerry Williams as head coach.

1972 After a stormy 2-11-1 season, Tose accepts general manager Retzlaff's resignation and releases the entire coaching staff. Harold Jackson leads NFL in receiving.

1973 Under new coach Mike McCormack and new quarterback Roman Gabriel, the Eagles have an exciting offensive season but it is not enough to keep them from a 5-8-1 record. In his first year as a full-time wide receiver, Harold Carmichael leads the NFL with 67 catches.

1974 Under newly appointed general manager Jim Murray, the Eagles trade with Cincinnati and acquire linebacker Bill Bergey. Bergey bolsters the defense and wins Pro Bowl honors along with Charle Young, who becomes the third consecutive Eagle to lead the league in pass receptions.

1976 After a 4-10 season in 1975, Tose appoints 39-year-old Dick Vermeil of UCLA as head coach. Bill Bergey wins All-NFC and Pro Bowl recognition.

1977 Quarterback Ron Jaworski is obtained from the Los Angeles Rams in exchange for the rights to tight end Charle Young. Bill Bergey, keying the newly-installed 3-4 defense of coordinator Marion Campbell, wins all-pro and all-conference honors and is selected to play in his third Pro Bowl.

1978 The Eagles post a 9-7 record, their first winning season since 1966, and make the playoffs for the first time since 1960. They lose in Atlanta, 14-13, on two late touchdowns in the NFC wild card playoff game. Wilbert Montgomery, in his first starting season, rushes for 1,220 yards to become the first Eagle since Steve Van Buren to surpass 1,000 in a season.

1979 With an 11-5 regular season record — their best since 1961 — the Eagles tie Dallas for first place in the NFC East and go to the playoffs as a wild card team. After beating Chicago, 27-17, in the playoffs, the Birds are upset at Tampa Bay, 24-17. Montgomery sets a club record with 1,512 rushing yards, and Harold Carmichael sets an NFL record against Cleveland by catching a pass in his 106th consecutive game. Barefoot rookie kicker Tony Franklin kicks the second longest field goal in NFL history — 59 yards — in 31-21 victory at Dallas. Dick Vermeil is voted NFL coach of the year.

1980 The Eagles win 11 of their first 12 games and go on to a 12-4 mark and the NFC East championship. The Birds trounce Minnesota, 31-16, in their first playoff game and then upset Dallas, 20-7, to win the NFC title and a berth in Super Bowl XV. The Oakland Raiders prevail in that game, however, 27-10. Ron Jaworski leads the NFC with a 90.9 passing rating while throwing for 3,527 yards and 27 touchdowns. He is named NFL player of the year by the Maxwell Football Club and NFC player of the year by UPI. Harold Carmichael's NFL receiving streak is snapped at 127 games when he fails to catch a pass in the regular season finale at Dallas after sustaining a back injury in the first half.

1981 The Eagles post a 10-6 record and appear in the playoffs for the fourth consecutive year. After building a 6-0 record early in the season, the Birds struggle in their final eight games and are upset in the NFC Wild Card Game by the New York Giants, 27-21. The Birds' defense ranks first in the NFL in fewest yards allowed (4,447) and fewest points allowed (221). On offense, Harold Carmichael enjoys the third 1,000-yard receiving year of his career and Wilbert Montgomery rushes for 1,402 yards.

1982 The first NFL players' strike in history takes place after two games and stops play for eight weeks. When play resumes on November 21, the long layoff hurts the Eagles. After splitting their first two games of the season, the Birds come back from the strike to lose four in a row and miss the playoffs for the first time since 1977. A 24-20 Eagles' victory at Dallas on December 26 is the last victory in the Philadelphia career of head coach Dick Vermeil, who resigns shortly following the season after compiling a 55-51-0 overall record.

1983 Marion Campbell replaces Dick Vermeil as head coach after six seasons as the Eagles' defensive coordinator. Owner and president Leonard Tose announces in January that his daughter, Susan Fletcher, the Eagles' vice president and legal counsel, would eventually succeed him as primary owner of the Eagles. After winning four of their first six games, the Eagles become mired in a seven-game losing streak and finish with a 5-11 record. The Birds' offense is highlighted by first team all-pro and AFC-NFC Pro Bowl selection Mike Quick, who leads the league and sets club records with 69 catches and 1,409 yards receiving.

1984 After a 1-4 start, the Eagles rebound with a 5-5-1 record over their final 11 games. Philadelphia's swarming defense sets a club record of 60 quarterback sacks and is the catalyst for the team's improved play. Wilbert Montgomery establishes the Eagles' career rushing record for yards (6,538) and attempts (1,465), surpassing the marks set by Pro Football Hall of Famer Steve Van Buren from 1944-51. Kicker Paul McFadden establishes Eagles' season scoring record with 116 points (tops among rookies), surpassing Bobby Walston's 30-year mark of 114, and is named NFC rookie of the year. Ron Jaworski suffers a broken leg at St. Louis in week 13, snapping his streak of 116 consecutive starts (believed to be an all-time record for NFL quarterbacks). Mike Quick is selected to the AFC-NFC Pro Bowl for the second straight year.

1985 On March 12, Leonard Tose, the Eagles' owner since 1969, announces an agreement to sell the team to Norman Braman and Ed Leibowitz, highly successful automobile dealers from Florida. After obtaining the approval of the other NFL owners and fulfilling the terms of the transaction, Braman officially becomes the Eagles' new owner on April 29. That same day, Braman elevates Harry Gamble, general manager since February 4, to vice president-general manager overseeing day-to-day operations of the club. All-time Eagles' rushing leader Wilbert Montgomery is traded to Detroit for LB Garry Cobb in preseason. The Eagles again overcome a 1-4 start, but fall off the pace and finish 7-9. Head coach Marion Campbell is released on December 16, and Fred Bruney takes over as interim head coach for final game at Minnesota, a 37-35 victory. Mike Quick, who catches 71 passes to break his own club season record, and Wes Hopkins represent Philadelphia in the AFC-NFC Pro Bowl.

1986 Buddy Ryan, defensive coordinator for the Chicago Bears for eight years, is named as the 17th head coach in Eagles' history on January 29. On July 16, Norman Braman becomes sole owner of the team, purchasing the remaining 35 percent from his brother-in-law Ed Leibowitz. Harry Gamble is promoted to president-chief operating officer. Ryan makes sweeping changes in the Eagles' roster, keeping young players and releasing several veterans. The youthful Birds struggle to a 5-10-1 record against the toughest schedule in the league. Defensive lineman Reggie White and wide receiver Mike Quick are selected to the AFC-NFC Pro Bowl.

1987 Reggie White ties a Pro Bowl record with four quarterback sacks and is selected the most valuable player in the game. In March, Ron Jaworski, who set nearly every club passing record from 1977-1986, is put on waivers after the club decides not to guarantee his contract.

Veterans Stadium

The Eagles have called Veterans Stadium home since 1971 after previous stops at Municipal (now JFK) Stadium, Connie Mack Stadium, and Franklin Field. In their history, the Birds have also played home games at the Baker Bowl, Temple University Stadium, and Pittsburgh's Forbes Field during the 1943 season.

Veterans Stadium, known as "the Vet," is one of the finest multi-purpose sports facilities in the country. Built on a 74-acre site in South Philadelphia, it is a gem of a sports complex that also includes a recreational park, mammoth JFK Stadium, and the Spectrum indoor arena, home of the Philadelphia Flyers and 76ers.

The Vet, which opened before the Phillies' 1971 baseball season, was built at a cost in excess of $50 million. The Eagles, 76ers, and Phillies maintain their executive offices in the stadium.

In 1986, the Eagles installed two grass practice fields in the north parking lot of the Vet as well as an inclement weather facility known as "the Bubble" at the north end of JFK. The Bubble consists of a synthetic roof supported by currents of air and covers a 70-yard AstroTurf field.

In 1985, 27 luxurious Penthouse Suites were built atop the south side of the stadium. Twenty-four more Suites were constructed the following year on the north side. Thirty-eight additional Suites on the west side will be ready for the 1987 preseason home opener and will bring the total number of Suites to 89.

The first Eagles' game at the Vet took place on August 16, 1971, when they defeated the Buffalo Bills in a preseason encounter, 34-28. The first regular season win came at the expense of the New York Giants, 23-7, on October 24, 1971.

In 16 seasons at Veterans Stadium, the Eagles have compiled a 59-61-2 regular season record. The seating capacity for football is 66,592, and the field is AstroTurf, installed in the spring of 1982.

MEDIA INFORMATION

CREDENTIAL REQUESTS: News media representatives who have not been issued season press credentials should request single-game credentials in advance by writing or calling the Eagles' public relations department, Veterans Stadium, Philadelphia, PA 19148 (phone: 215-463-2500). Credentials reserved in advance can be picked up at the Press Gate/Security Entrance below Gate B off Pattison Ave. (not the Will Call Window) three hours before the scheduled kickoff. Members of the media who regularly cover a visiting team should arrange to acquire their credentials through that team's PR department.

PRESS BOXES: The Eagles maintain three press boxes, designated A, B, and C, on the fourth level of Veterans Stadium. Admission to the press area is strictly limited to those individuals holding credentials issued by the Eagles' public relations department. No other media identification cards will be honored. All news media should enter the press gate (Pattison Ave. side of stadium). Those with credentials for the press box should take the elevator to the fourth level.

TELEPHONES: Game day telephones at an assigned seat can be ordered by calling Denise O'Brien at Infocore, 215-337-9611.

TELEVISION AND RADIO: Network television and visiting radio facilities are located on the fourth level between press boxes A and B. Visiting radio credentials will be issued through the visiting team's PR representative. Television announcers may do stand-ups on the field in pre-game, halftime, during the last three minutes of the game, and post-game.

PHOTOGRAPHERS: Sideline credentials for field photographers are issued by the Eagles' public relations department only. Space limitations make it impossible to accredit free lance photographers who are not on specific assignment by a recognized sports or news publication. Photographers should enter the press gate (B) and take the elevator to the first (field) level. Space on the fourth level photo deck is extremely limited and available only on a reserved basis. All field photographers are reminded that they must remain outside the bench areas and behind the broken yellow lines that surround the entire perimeter of the playing field.

DIRECTIONS FROM AIRPORT TO VET STADIUM —Take I-95 north for approximately 6 miles to Broad Street exit. Go straight on Broad for two lights. The stadium is located at intersection of Broad and Pattison Ave. NOTE: Eagles' practice fields are located in the north parking lot near the stadium.
